

Rònilo il Ristorante

Spanish Steps - Closed Sundays

Rònilo's cooking is done with love, beginning with fresh, hand-selected products. Every day the chef charts a gastronomic course, personally choosing the essential ingredients and concentrating on the creative cuisine of the region - typical Roman dishes with some unique reinterpretations.

Margutta RistorArte

Spanish Steps - Open Daily

Hands down the best vegetarian restaurant in Rome, where every vegetarian (and otherwise) can savor the flavorful and inventive dishes. A short distance from Piazza di Spagna, a vegetarian experience here might even tempt you to convert.

Open Colonna

Trevi Fountain - Closed Monday

Open Colonna offers a low-cost city lunch, a strictly Italian brunch, and a gourmet dinner, all in true Colonna style. It is the result of a truly creative mind, a combination of Antonello Colonna's twenty years' experience and expertise as an internationally-renowned chef.

Go Fresh

Our food is recognized as one of the finest and most celebrated cuisines in the world. With delicious hand-made pastas, savory sauces, and delectable meats, it's easy to lose yourself on a culinary adventure through the Eternal City. But beware! Not all Italian is created equal!

Many tourist restaurants are using boxed pastas, frozen products, and dried herbs. Don't settle for less than fresh! The true secret to Italian cooking is the freshness of the ingredients used and the time and care dedicated to the preparation.

This brochure contains some of the great restaurants that continue the authentic Italian tradition of fresh dishes crafted by true culinary artisans. Just call the number listed here below, and one of our agents will be happy to assist you in booking a table as a free service:
